

CULTURAL PROGRAM | SATURDAY 19 MAY

The Greek Club 12pm to 7pm

Featuring historical displays and a number of readings and presentations.

ALL DAY

Exhibition and display of ancient Byzantine Macedonian treasures and artefacts with jewellery, icons, costumes, art and books, as well as works from acclaimed Greek-Australian painter and installation artists, Andrew Arnaoutopoulos.

---

Time	Activity
12:30pm	Readings and songs from the children's book Melpomene and Adonis by Phillipa Adgemis.
2:00pm	Book launch by Dr. Amelia Brown, Senior Lecturer in Greek history and language at the University of Queensland, of her new book Corinth in Late Antiquity: A Greek, Roman and Christian City. Find out how Corinth used to be the capital city of Greece under the Roman empire, full of temples, statues and churches. Books will be available for purchase and signing after the lecture.
3:30pm	Talk by Father Dimitri Tsakas on Thessaloniko: A Multicultural past with Jewish dimensions. Father Dimitri will discuss the fascinating multicultural past of Thessaloniki focussing on the Jewish community of Thessaloniki pre and post-World War II.

---

Greek Orthodox Church of St George (next to The Greek Club)

Traditional Greek church displays and tours with Byzantine chanting and Orthodox liturgy.

CULTURAL PROGRAM | SUNDAY 19 MAY

The Greek Club 11am to 5pm

Featuring historical displays and a number of readings and presentations.

ALL DAY

Exhibition and display of ancient Byzantine Macedonian treasures and artefacts with jewellery, icons, costumes, art and books, as well as works from acclaimed Greek-Australian painter and installation artists, Andrew Arnaoutopoulos.

---

Time

Activity

11:00am

Talk by Emeritus Professor R.D. (Bob) Milns: King Philip II – Greatest of the Macedonian Kings?

This slide-illustrated presentation looks at the achievements of Philip in uniting and expanding ancient Macedonia and creating the conditions for his son, Alexander's conquests.

12:00pm

Readings and songs from the children's book Melpomene and Adonis by Phillippa Adgemis.

2:30pm

Talk by John Caravousanos on Macedonia and the making of modern Greece – 1912 to 1918.

John will discuss the critical role of the Greek province of Macedonia in the emergence of what is now modern Greece through the tumultuous period of 1912 to 1918.

---

Greek Orthodox Church of St George (next to The Greek Club)

Traditional Greek church displays and tours with Byzantine chanting and Orthodox liturgy and performances by the St John of Damascus Community Choir of St George at 1:45pm, 2:45pm and 3:45pm.